Tour photograph · Bangkok

Your driver will collect you from the hotel at 08:00 for the journey from Bangkok to Damnoen Saduak Floating Market in Ratchaburi province.

Travel southwest from Bangkok to Damnoen Saduak, one of Thailand's best-known floating markets. Along the way, stop at a local producer to see how palm sugar is made.

At the pier, board a long-tail boat and follow small canals towards the market, glimpsing daily life along the waterways. Vendors sell fruit, vegetables, flowers and other goods from their boats to customers along the banks. Try local food, coconut water or fresh fruit juice, and browse for souvenirs.

Tour photograph · Bangkok

Join a Thai cooking class led by professional instructors at Sompong Thai Cooking School in Bangkok. Begin with a local market visit, where you learn to choose ingredients for the day's dishes and discover their place in Thai cooking.

Each participant has an individual workstation and equipment. Prepare three Thai main dishes, a dessert and a curry paste from scratch, with guidance suited to your experience. Vegetarian options are available; please tell us about any allergies in advance so the school can discuss suitable arrangements.

Afterwards, enjoy the dishes you have made. You can also ask about taking some away to share.

Its gleaming chedi and five-tiered golden parasol shelter sacred Buddha relics. On a clear day, the terrace offers far-reaching views over the city. The 306-step Naga Staircase, lined with mythical serpent figures, makes a memorable approach.

Back in the city, visit Wat Suan Dok, the Royal Flower Garden Temple with its large central stupa, and Wat Chedi Luang, known for its imposing historic chedi. Together with Doi Suthep, these temples offer a glimpse of Chiang Mai's religious heritage.
